- 1 I am the Omer in Omega. I am the brightness in the Sun, Shemesh YHWH.
- 2 I do not set a tongue of confusion but a tower of truth. As many as accept the Endowment receive power of the priesthood and are strengthened in their purpose. They manifest godliness, they are the Redemptive Seed of On.
- 3 Hear and partake of my Word, be transformed. Receive a Paradise mystery, secretly in yourselves. Become cisterns of fire knowing my instruction.
- 4 From the Paradise threshold in a Orionis balsam flows through the priest of El Elyon to the people: this is how you shall bless them.
 - ‛ May YHWH bless you—Transference of Holy Spirit—to keep you. (Num. Ch. 6)
 - ‛ May YHWH shine His countenance upon you—through a lens clearly—transmission of grace.
 - ‛ May YHWH lift up His countenance upon you—from foundation above—peace, which cannot be moved.
- 5 Beware of lesser gods posing as Beings of Light. Do not be tempted by counterfeiters seeking hosts in evil hearts of men. Michael has cast them down and they seek dominion within the lower heavens. They suppose they grind out your fate but I have chained theirs. They tarry at the mill but I quicken your spiritual eye and seal it with truth.
- 6 I am a canister set before all things and the ways of me are also set in you.
- 7 Renew your vows of love. In the field made white, enter through the Scepter and into my Salvation.
- 8 The angel standing in the Sun cries with a loud voice (Rev. 19:17). This angel, called “made sure in YHWH,” opens a hidden door. This is the lock that leads to the Paradise worlds. You cannot see in until you are in. The supper of the great God is a pentecost, a time translation from a divine emanation.
- 9 If you do not remember you have come into this world with purpose, you do not remember you preexisted this world. My Word causes you to know the Beauty from which, and with which, you were created.

10 Therefore I must turn your hearts to the forefathers, they give voice unto my glory. Then comes renewal and the speech to teach the setting of the Son.

11 The Lords of Light are returning to be with their people in the field, to attune and instruct, they bring knowledge of the place prepared.

12 The cows pulling the Ark (1Sa. 6:12) sang a new song in the procession, they took the straight way to Beth-Shemesh. I give you a pattern in all things that you may not be pulled to the right nor to the left.

13 Mercy upon mercy has been poured forth that where I go you know the way. The sweetness of my breath is upon the face of your soul.

14 The Scriptures of Light reveal celestial architecture placing the mind on a higher wavelength of Light. Seeing this wisdom in Elijah's mantle brings a double portion of mystery: knowledge of the way in this world and knowledge of the way in the world to come. I am that way.

15 And you, espy the great ship in Eden, at the border of Zidon, it is a sign for the ships of great Light to take the remnant in the Great Exodus. The ship is in the name Hayot ha-Kodesh. Take no other.

16 Open to me, sing and receive, I will fill your heart with the immeasurable joy of our union.

17 Mic. 7:7, Therefore in YHWH יהוה I will be on the watch; I will wait for the God of my salvation: my God will hear me.

18 Will hear me—in a time of favor—when the will of the Father is made manifest, when He sanctifies you with Ten Words. These Ten are One, thus: in that day YHWH alone will be exalted. And so it is אמן.
